

THIRTY YEARS OF SERVICE

MIKE BROWN

Police Chief – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Mike is a graduate of Trinity High School in Euless. He attended Tarleton State University, completed his Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice at Tarrant County College, and earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice at the University of North Texas in Denton. He also attended Southwestern Law Enforcement Institute of the Southwestern Legal Foundation School of Supervision & Management College. He holds a Master Peace Officer's License.

Employment Background & Experience:

Mike worked as a Police Cadet, Dispatcher, and Officer for the City of Richland Hills from 1974-1975. He initially joined the Euless Police Department in October, 1975. After a couple of breaks in service, he returned in August 1986 and quickly promoted through the ranks. He retired in January 2003 while holding the rank of Lieutenant. That month, he accepted the position of Chief of Police at the University of North Texas Health Science Center in Fort Worth and remained in that capacity until February 2007. In February 2007, Mike accepted the position of Police Chief with Euless.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

Mike served on the Euless City Council from 2006-2007. He is a member of the HEB Rotary Club. He has actively served the Police Department and the community over the years through participation in many programs: DARE program, Citizen's Police Academy, kids summer police camp, crime prevention programs, Task Forces, Adopt-A-Cop, and many others. Mike is proud of his many accomplishments, including 1977 Distinguished Service Award, 1984 Officer of the Year, 1985 & 1987 Civic Achievement Awards, and 1996 Texas Citizen Police Academy Officer of the Year. Mike enjoys spending time with his family and feels he is the "most blessed man in the world".

